50X1-HUM

Yugoslav Government officials and representatives of Government enterprises who travel in Near and Middle Eastern countries have been instructed to use the following propaganda in dealing with official and commercial representatives of these countries.

1. Yugoslavs do not come to these countries for political and economic exploitation as do businessmen from capitalistic and imperialistic countries.

2. Instead, Yugoslavs are friends of these countries and wish to help them become economically independent.

3. Yugoslavs are not interested in making profits because Yugoslav enterprises are owned by the workers and the Government who have no other wish than to keep the establishments working. Consequently, Yugoslav enterprises are in a position to offer their products and the work of their specialists and skilled workers at more convenient prices than the enterprises of capitalistic and imperialistic countries.

4. It is wrong to believe that Yugoslavia has a dictatorial regime based on one party. On the contrary, Yugoslavia has four parties:

   a. Socialist Party with 7,500,000 members[1];

   b. Communist Party;

   c. Agrarian Party; and

   d. Republican Party.

5. These parties take an active part in the political life of the country, and all of them are represented in the present Parliament.

6. The fact that the Yugoslav political parties do not hold elections with separate lists is only a proof of the political maturity of their politicians who place the interests of the country and the people above their partisan interests.

7. In international policy, Yugoslavia does not want to become a victim of the East-West controversy and is determined to safeguard her independence.

8. Yugoslavia will do everything possible to promote the cause of peace.
